Business Professional Launches New Consulting Firm for Growing Australian and International Companies

VICTORIA, Australia – <enter date>, 2005— Bodhaka Bandara, a successful business consulting professional based in Victoria, AU, has recently launched ITN Australia, a business consulting company which serves the support needs of small to medium sized businesses worldwide.

ITN Australia provides entrepreneur development, management consulting, IT and e-business consulting to empower small business owners, helping them reduce costs, optimize performance and increase the overall productivity of their companies. In addition, ITN offers online and on-site seminars and programs to help business professionals develop their marketing, e-commerce and strategic planning skills.

Bodhaka Irugal Bandara is the managing director and acting CEO of ITN. An expert in her field, Bodhaka holds graduate degrees in Management and Information Systems with extensive management experience and numerous professional affiliations. Due to the ever-increasing opportunities that technology and e-commerce introduce in the market, Bodhaka decided to form ITN Australia in order to support and serve the needs of small businesses locally, as well as internationally.

“I wanted to fill a much-needed niche in the Australian business community by servicing small to medium sized businesses who clearly wanted the professional consulting and support that would help them solve their business challenges. ITN helps small businesses become more profitable by introducing new strategies and solutions that will help them operate more efficiently.”

ITN Australia is a successful division of ITN International, which operates on a global level providing consulting services. “It is our goal that businesses from all over the world will soon come together to share prosperity and success with fairness and dignity.”

“I am proud of the highly skilled group of IT experts and top-notch business consultants I have assimilated to help fulfill our mission to provide support, guidance and global vision to small businesses throughout the world. Our dynamic consulting team provides fresh and innovative ideas, lateral thinking and visionary leadership.”

Whether you are starting a new business or hoping to streamline your current one, ITN Australia provides all the consulting and resources you need to start, run and expand your small business and achieve success.”
